Historical Note

"Baltimore '68: Riots and Rebirth" was a series of public events held at the University of Baltimore in 2008 to commemorate the 40th anniversary of Baltimore's civil unrest in the aftermath of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The primary component of this public programming was an academic conference, held April 3-5, 2008, which examined the effects of the riots and brought together various stakeholders from the Baltimore community. The project also included oral history interviews, a community arts mural, and a public history website with archival source documentation. "Baltimore '68: Riots and Rebirth" was awarded the Outstanding Public History Project Award from the National Council on Public History in 2009.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of oral history transcripts of interviews conducted for the "Baltimore '68: Riots and Rebirth" project, as well as documents related to the conference, website, and book.
