Conrad Schafran Record Collection R0150.CSJ

This finding aid was produced using ArchivesSpace on October 31, 2016.
Table of Contents

- Summary Information ................................................................................................................. 3
- Historical Note ............................................................................................................................ 3
- Scope and Contents .................................................................................................................... 3
- Arrangement ............................................................................................................................. 3
- Administrative Information ....................................................................................................... 4
Summary Information

Repository: Langsdale Library Special Collections
Title: Conrad Schafran Record Collection
ID: R0150.CSJ
Date [inclusive]: 1900-1990
Physical Description: Approximately 8,000 Volumes Vinyl LP audio recordings
Language of the Material: English

Historical Note

Conrad Schafran is a 1949 graduate of the University of Baltimore and a native of New York City. Schafran donated his record collection to UB in order to promote the appreciation of jazz music among younger generations of students and music listeners.

Scope and Contents

Collection of jazz, blues, folk, rock, big band, and show-tune commercial audio recordings

Arrangement

The majority of the collection has been cataloged according to the Library of Congress Classification system and is arranged by library call number. To search the collection, please use the Langsdale Library catalog.
Administrative Information

Publication Statement

Langsdale Library Special Collections

University of Baltimore
1415 Maryland Avenue
Learning Commons, Room 420
Baltimore, Maryland 21201
specialcollections@ubalt.edu
URL: http://langsdale.ubalt.edu/special-collections/